

INCINERATOR

You know in the City of Newark
There's a section called Ironbound
Full of restaurants, stores and houses
Getting treated like a dumping ground.
All alone on some urban street
People really get nervous at night.
It's not muggers who scare you here —
There's a monster loose in broad daylight!

chorus: The parks and the rivers,
Every corner café —
This city's our home;
We're here to stay.
A clean-up's underway,
We're here to stay.

Big incinerator spewing stench.
It's environmental robbery.
Burns thousands of tons a day,
Pays the owners like the lottery.
Now the fumes and the chemicals
Come crashing through the gate.
Lots of people getting sick.
Worst polluter in the Garden State!

repeat chorus

Lots of people are immigrants here.
Lots of people are short on cash.
They're sprayed, betrayed and written off.
Left to burn, burn down like trash.
Now the spoilers plan to double the load.
Use the river to barge more in.
Well, this community is shutting them down.
We're gonna fight, we're gonna win.

repeat chorus

© 2002 by Ray Korona